

2009 Canadian Pacific Holiday Train

In Sparwood Saturday, December 12

4:45 p.m. to 5:15 p.m., 367 Pine St., behind Leisure Centre

Steaming out of the past and in to Sparwood comes CP 2816 Empress steam locomotive.

In the last decade, the Holiday Train has help raise $4 million and 2 million pounds of food for local food banks.

Bring a cash or food donation to the Holiday Train event in Sparwood on December 12 and help feed the need.

Entertainers

This year's Canadian Holiday Train will feature The Odds and Shaun Verreault.

Shaun Verreault is the lead singer/guitarist/songwriter/producer for Canadian blues rock trio Wide Mouth Mason.

The Odds, an alternative rock band, bring their energy and full voiced harmonies to the Holiday Train stage for the first time. With international hits such as "Someone Who's Cool", "Eat My Brain", "Truth Untold", "Make You Mad" and "Mercy to Go", this power pop quartet will be sure to entertain.
